Dear Sir and Miss Lee

Thank you for the supportive information.

Until now the investigation only can be conducted half way due to MT MORESBY 9 was cast off of more accurately lost from her anchorage position.

We also can't manage to track the vessel via AIO. We do believed the vessel already switching off the AIS.

Early investigation/ Boarding team was arrived on board at approximately 2200Hrs 17th August and the Police Report SG RENGIT/000689/13 was launch with assistance from the same team. During the search, 4 machete (parang), 2 ski mask and 2 t-shirt (use as mask) was founded.

On 18th August, MMEA Forensic Team was on board but no new concrete evidence was founded due to whole crime scene was contaminated. Our Team also be inform, there were no lost from MORESBY 9 based on ships' crews inspection.

On 19th August, when Investigation Officer went to the anchorage position to complete the investigation, MORESBY 9 was founded lost.

The vessel also full with Fuel Cargo (type and amount cant be validated) when all the robbers climb on board. We also believed the motive and objective of the robbery is to hijack the vessel and transfer all of the fuel cargo into others vessels at less monitored area, wheather exposed, Off Territorial water or maybe directly toward Anambas or Natuna Islands.

After realize that there is no loss by the ship and the investigation process could be very tedious, MORESBY 9 was cast off to continue her business. There is also a possibility that the robbery is one of the unhealthy method based on competition among bunker / fuel supply operator.

Thank You n Regard
